

Cases of waterborne diseases such as typhoid fever fell dramatically with the adoption of drinking water chlorination.

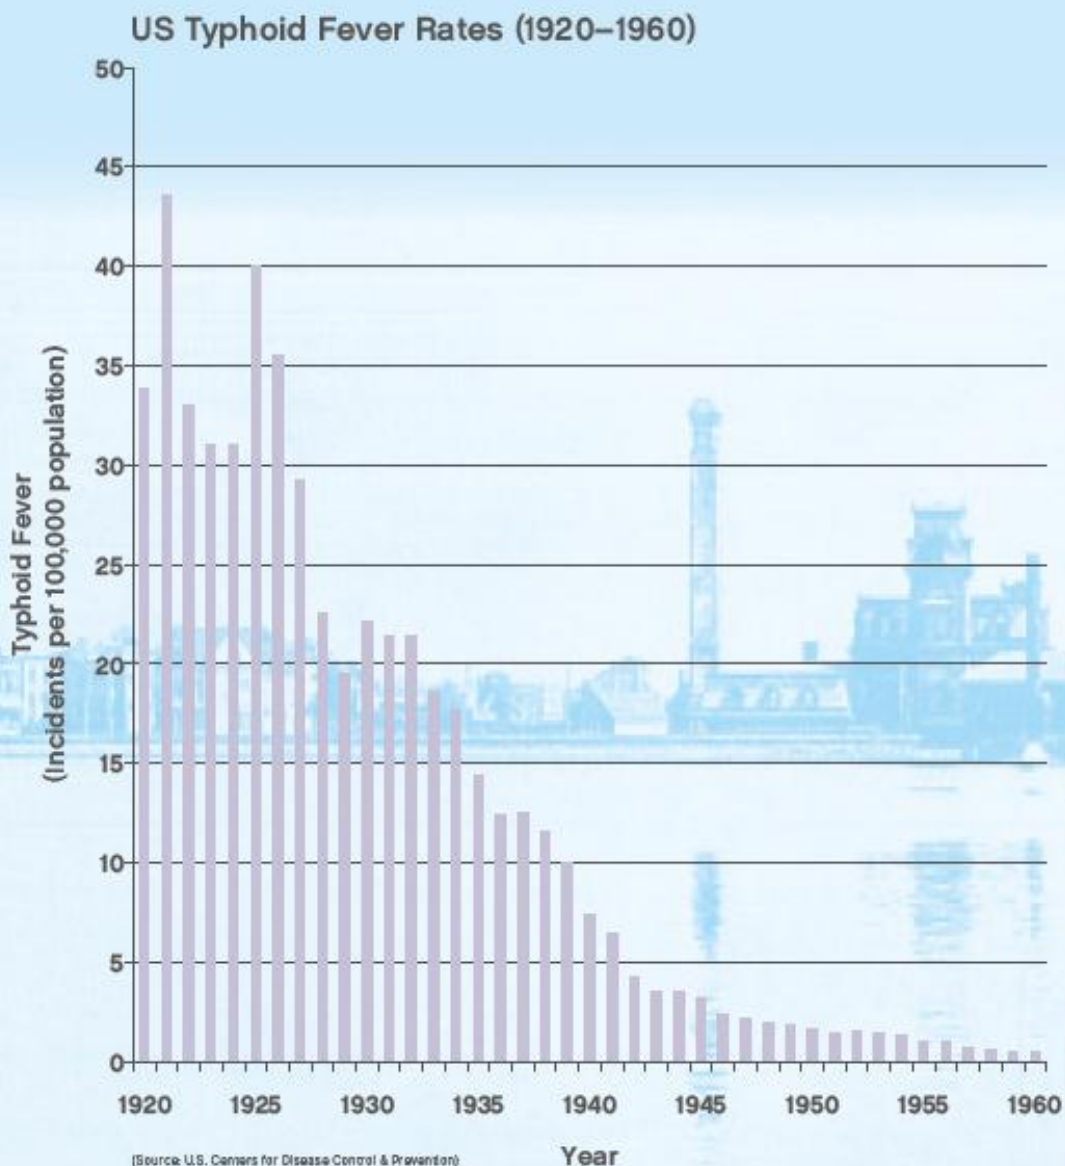

Photo courtesy of the New Jersey Room, Jersey City Free Public Library

